

WINE ENTHUSIAST®

SEPTEMBER 2010

93 EnRoute 2008 Les Pommiers Pinot Noir (Russian River Valley);

This is a very rich, ripe, flamboyant Pinot, made in the lush California stlye. It's flashy in complex tiers of raspberries, cherries, red currants, licorice, cocoa, and cinnamon spice, yet is is silky and dry. The fruit comes from Sonoma Coast, Green Valley and the Middle Reach. An impressive follow up to the inaugural '07, and a bottling to watch.
